

Join the U.S. Access Board in Indianapolis for a Town Hall Meeting and Training May 21st

Bankers Life Fieldhouse, Pacers Square Room
125 S. Pennsylvania Street, Indianapolis

An informal dialogue on accessibility with Members of the Access Board

Training on the ADA Standards (free)

8:00 – 9:00 Registration & Welcome
9:00 – 10:30 Application of the Standards &
Common Sources of Confusion
10:30 – 10:45 Break
10:45 – 12:15 Recreation Facilities & Outdoor
Sites

Town Hall Meeting

2:00 – 2:15 Opening Remarks
2:15 – 3:30 Panel Discussions
3:30 – 4:30 Overview of the Access
Board & Open Forum

Participants can attend both or either training session. Architects can earn continuing education credits from the American Institute of Architects (1.5 per training session).

All events are free and open to the public. An assistive listening system, computer assisted real-time transcription, and sign language interpreters will be provided. For the comfort of all participants, please do not use perfume, cologne, and other fragrances.

For more details, contact Dave Yanchulis (202) 272-0026 or yanchulis@access-board.gov.