

2023 AIA INDIANA HEALTHCARE DESIGN AWARDS – Call for Entries

All AIA Indiana member architects in good standing who have led the design of completed healthcare projects inside or outside of Indiana are invited to compete for Honor, Merit, and Citation Design Awards. Also, AIA member architects outside of Indiana in good standing and who are responsible for the lead role in designing healthcare projects located in Indiana are invited to compete. The awards will be presented at the 2023 AIA Indiana Healthcare Design Awards Program.

PROCESS

Categories

The jury will be requested to review submissions for possible awards in the following areas:

1. NEW CONSTRUCTION – (Construction cost greater than $25 million)
2. NEW CONSTRUCTION – (Construction cost greater than $5 - $25 million)
3. NEW CONSTRUCTION – (Construction cost less than $5 million)
4. ADAPTIVE REUSE/RENOVATION/INTERIOR ARCHITECTURE
5. HEALTHCARE PLANNING/APPLIED RESEARCH

New Construction, Preservation/Adaptive Reuse/Renovation, or Interiors: All entries, except for HEALTHCARE PLANNING/APPLIED RESEARCH, must be a constructed work of healthcare architecture, either a building or a complex of buildings and related spaces completed within the past five (5) years. Completion is synonymous with “substantial completion” as defined in the standard AIA documents governing construction.

Eligibility and Authorship

All AIA Indiana member architects who have led the design of completed healthcare projects are eligible to submit project entries. Also, all AIA member, Indiana licensed non-resident architects who are responsible for the lead role in designing healthcare projects are eligible to submit project entries located in Indiana.

Entries are welcomed and encouraged from both established and new practitioners and designers and from small firms and large. All submissions, must have a substantial completion date within five (5) years after August 18, 2018. Where multiple architects and/or designers collaborated on respective healthcare projects, the applicant shall identify all participating design and engineering firms and their roles in the healthcare project.

An individual or firm may submit more than one entry. It is recommended the architect inform the owner that the healthcare project has been entered in this awards program. An additional entry fee is required if a submission is entered into more than one category.

Adjudication

Entries will be judged by the 2023 AIA Indiana Healthcare Design Awards Jury, which will be an eminent architectural jury of peers. Jocelyn Lum Frederick, FAIA, ACHA, HC Tangram Design, has agreed to serve as the jury chair.

It is the intention of AIA Indiana to publish jury members and their respective comments regarding the award recipients at the time of the presentation of the awards. Comments on entries that do not receive an award are typically not provided.

All decisions of this jury are final and independent from AIA Indiana, its officers, directors, committee members, and staff. The AIA Indiana Healthcare Design Awards Committee does not participate in the jury deliberations, but will organize the jury, send and receive entries to and from the jury for deliberations, and facilitate preparation and presentation of the awards.

Recognition

Jurors will recognize three classifications of awards:

- Honor
- Merit
- Citation

It is the liberty of the jury to present awards as they rule appropriate.

Presentation of Awards

Results of the jury and award winners will remain undisclosed to the public until the day of the presentation, Friday, August 18, 2023. Media releases may be released the day prior to attract media promotions. Winners will receive a plaque.

The awards will be presented Friday, August 18, at Indiana Landmarks in Indianapolis, IN as a part of the 2023 AIA Indiana Healthcare Design Symposium. All entrants are encouraged to attend the entire symposium as well as the awards presentation. Owners of the built work and contractors are also encouraged to attend. Registration for the symposium, which includes the awards presentation, will be sent separately.

PROVISIONS

Payment

Registration fees for AIA Indiana members/firms are $225.00 for the first entry and $125.00 for each additional entry thereafter. Fees are non-refundable and will not be refunded for entries that are disqualified or that do not receive an award. Collected fees will cover expenses for publication of the program to the membership, jury expenses, production of the awards, and promotion of the awards to the public.
